Chassagne-Montrachet 'Vieilles Vignes', Domaine

Borgeot, Burgundy (France) 114.00

White Burgundy at its best from Two brothers, Laurent and Pascal Borgeot represent the fourth generation of wine makers in the family, and this old vine example of Chardonnay has huge complexity on the nose.

Barolo, Massolino, Piemonte (Italy) 88.00

Piemonte is famous for the Nebbiolo grape and Barolo is the outstanding example. The quality comes from the soil, altitude of the vineyards and 130 years of family experience passed down to Franco Massolino.

'Purple Angel' Colchagua, Montes, Colchagua Valley

(Chile) 96.00

A New World iconic wine from the Montes family, who were the first to put quality Chilean wine on the world map in the late 1980s. This wine is made from 90% Carmenere grapes and 10% Petit Verdot, grapes originally from the Bordeaux region.

'Nine Popes' Barossa Valley, Charles Melton

(South Australia) 106.00

One of the early pioneers of quality Shiraz from the Barossa Valley, Charlie Melton's reputation has grown since the early 1980s. This nod to Chateaufeuf-du-Pape is a blend of Grenache and Shiraz; red fruit flavours mingle with sweet spice, a plump mouthfeel and savoury notes.

Nuits-Saint-Georges 'Le Coteau des Bois',

Jean-Claude Boisset, Burgundy (France) 110.00

JC Boisset is a classic Burgundian producer, with the added benefit of one of the top viticulturists and winemakers of his generation, Gregory Patriat. This wine shows red cherry and smoky notes, silky tannins and great structure.

Amarone della Valpolicella Classico, Allegrini, Veneto
