The Cellar List

A hand-picked selection of Fine Wines from some of the world's top vineyards. These iconic producers represent the best of the classic wine regions, their wines are unique - showing power, elegance and class.

Marlborough Wild Sauvignon, Greywacke
(New Zealand) 48.00
Kevin Judd created Greywacke estate in 2009 and has won acclaim for his unique take on Sauvignon. Blanc, fermented in old oak barrels using only wild natural yeasts and shows ripe fruit and Asian spices.

‘M3’ Adelaide Hills Chardonnay, Shaw + Smith
(South Australia) 58.00
A top-notch classic Aussie Chardonnay from Martin Shaw and Michael Hill-Smith from the cooler part of the Adelaide Hills. Citrus and nectarine on the nose, some restrained use of oak makes it full yet elegant on the palate.

‘La Rocca’ Soave Classico, Pieropan, Veneto
(Italy) 65.00
This famous wine-making family have been producing wine in Soave since the 1890's. Named after La Rocca, a medieval castle nearby, this single vineyard produces a unique wine that reflects the limestone and basalt soil, nutty and complex.

Chassagne-Montrachet ‘Vieilles Vignes’, Domaine Borgeot, Burgundy (France) 114.00
White Burgundy at its best from Two brothers, Laurent and Pascal Borgeot represent the fourth generation of wine makers in the family, this old vine example of Chardonnay has huge complexity on the nose.

Barolo, Massolino, Piemonte (Italy) 88.00
Piemonte is famous for the Nebbiolo grape and Barolo is the outstanding example. The quality comes from the soil, altitude of the vineyards and 130 years of family experience passed down to Franco Massolino.

‘Purple Angel’ Colchagua, Montes, Colchagua Valley
(Chile) 96.00
A New World iconic wine from the Montes family, who were the first to put quality Chilean wine on the world map in the late 1980s. This wine is made from 90% Carmenere grapes and 10% Petit Verdot, grapes originally from the Bordeaux region.

‘Nine Popes’ Barossa Valley, Charles Melton
(South Australia) 106.00
One of the early pioneers of quality Shiraz from the Barossa Valley, Charlie Melton's reputation has grown since the early 1980s. This nod to Chateauf-du-Pape is a blend of Grenache and Shiraz; red fruit flavours mingle with sweet spice, a plump mouthfeel and savoury notes.

Nuits-Saint-Georges ‘Le Coteau des Bois’, Jean-Claude Boisset, Burgundy (France) 110.00
JC Boisset is a classic Burgundian producer, with the added benefit of one of the top viticulturists and winemakers of his generation, Gregory Patriat. This wine shows red cherry and smoky notes, silky tannins and great structure.

Amarone della Valpolicella Classico, Allegrini, Veneto
(Italy) 120.00
The Allegrini family have been making wine in Valpolicella for six generations. The Amarone is made from dried grapes but the modern winemaking retains a freshness that is unique, the refined tannins balance out the richness and body of the wine.

Margaux 2ème Cru Classé, Château Durfort-Vivens, Bordeaux, (France) 150.00
At their best, Margaux wines are the most elegant and refined wines of the Medoc in Bordeaux. This example of a Second Cru Classe is a subtle expression of finesse, elegance, freshness of fruit and a harmonious finish.
